This is not a comprehensive list of dairy processing equipment suppliers, nor is it an endorsement of any particular entity. Rather these are companies that have worked with businesses in the area and/or who have contacted us with interest in the DBII project. If you are a company or have worked with an equipment manufacturer/dealer or a facility/design consultant that is not listed, please send ncdairyextension@ncsu.edu the name and current contact information that can be added to this resource page. Thanks!*
